Resigns as Choral Society Leader

New Officers Seek Director to Succeed Professor Nice

The outstanding event at the annual meeting of the Choral Society last Monday evening was the announcement of the retirement of Clarence C. Nice from his position as Musical Director of the organization. This decision on the part of Mr. Nice was the result of many additional calls upon his time from his profession, including his appointment as Guest Conductor of the San Carlo Opera Company for this season. The news was received with much regret on the part of the Society, as it was largely through his interest and enthusiasm that the Society was organized three years ago, and its progress to the present high position occupied in the musical world is entirely the result of Mr. Nice's able leadership. The problem of selecting a new Director who will be able to fill the position with the same spirit and personality is a difficult one for the officers to face.

A number of suggestions were laid before the meeting by the retiring Board of Directors, aimed primarily toward increasing the local interest in the Choral's work. It was the expressed opinion of the old officers that a shorter season would make more of an appeal to both the active members and the local supporters and that such a season should be planned so as to produce a light opera or an oratorio as its climax. This question will undoubtedly receive the early attention of the newly elected officers.

Another problem that will receive very earnest consideration is that of being able to dispense with ticket sales for the local concerts. The ideal towards which the Board of Directors has each year worked is that in which the expenses of the Society could be covered by advance subscriptions, thus making it unnecessary to force tickets on lukewarm purchasers before each concert. The possibility of reaching this goal appears very bright with the shorter season.

The Board of Directors will serve for the present year:

President—Mr. Henry A. Frye.
Vice-President—Mrs. Lyndley H. Trotter.
Recording Secretary—Mr. Owen B. Schmidt.
Financial Sec'y—Mrs. Earl Walker.
Treasurer—Mr. Wallis Boileau, Jr.
Librarian—Mr. Joseph McGarrity.
Directors—Mrs. James Foote, Mrs. Robert Compton, Mrs. Paul R. Loos, Mr. Henry Carr, Mr. H. C. Fanno, Mr. Robert Mueller.

Following the election of these officers future plans were discussed in open meeting, and it was decided to await the report of the Board covering the various questions to be delivered at the next regular business meeting on Monday, November 5th. At that time definite action will be taken by the Society and the season's plans announced.

CONDUCTING SAN CARLO OPERA.

Professor Clarence C. Nice, of Elm Terrace, Narberth, is guest conductor of the San Carlo Grand Opera this season. He is working with the management in the promotion of a special performance of "Hansel and Gretel," sung in English, to be given at the Wednesday matinee, October 24th.

This is to be given largely for children, and a special price of 50c. per ticket has been offered to induce children to attend. The full details of this will be found in an advertisement on page four of this issue.

Professor Nice is former conductor of the Narberth Choral Society, and is prominent in musical circles of Philadelphia and other cities.

BUMBOES.

Those Methodist young people are going to give a play. They didn't say when; they didn't say where; they didn't say why. But I just know it's going to be good, and when I find out more about it, I'll let you know.

Miss Anita Miller, of Merion avenue, entertained a dinner party of twelve guests on Friday evening. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. R. Evans, of Price avenue, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McKill, of Ardmore; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wine, of Shirley Road, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Darville, of Merion avenue, are spending the week end at South Mountain Manor, Warnersville, Pa.

Community Club Luncheon Tuesday

Many Plans for Winter are Announced

Many acceptances are coming in from both members and guests for the annual luncheon of the Women's Community Club with which it will open its new club year next Tuesday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. building.

It is expected that quite a number of clubs will be represented and the Hospitality Committee is making many plans to make this affair most interesting and entertaining.

The first County Federation meeting will be held at Ambler with a box luncheon on Thursday, October 18th, and it is hoped that the Narberth Club will be represented with a large delegation.

There will also be a "Movie" benefit for the club at the Ardmore Theatre on October 29, with some unusual attractions, and all those Narberthites and their friends wishing for a real thrill will have that wish granted if they journey to Ardmore and attend this benefit.

Louis Crescenta, Rudolph Valentino's juvenile rival, with his partner, Ellen Tannola, both of whom have been dancing and have won many prizes on the Million Dollar Pier at Atlantic City this summer, have been secured as a special added attraction to the feature picture, "Salome Jane."

In addition to a ballet, these youthful artists will dance the Argentine Tango as presented in the "Four Horsemen." They will be assisted by Little Margaret Drummond, who will entertain the audience with some songs. From all reports these dances are quite out of the ordinary and in themselves are well worth the price of admission. Don't forget to hold this date open, October 29.

One of the most interesting of the winter plans being brought forward is the Chorus of about twelve picked voices. There will be a number of soloists among these, and the chorus is planning to make several appearances during the winter. It will also be a source of music at the regular club meetings.

The Executive Board is now complete. Mrs. A. B. Ross, President, having as her associates on this board: Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, Chairman of Legislation; Mrs. E. A. Muschamp, Chairman of Membership; Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Junior Chairman of County; Mrs. J. F. Donnelly, Chairman of Dramatics; Mrs. H. A. McConnell, Chairman of Hospitality; Mrs. Wm. Livingston, Chairman of Comforts for the Sick; Mrs. Wm. E. Boryer, Chairman of Publicity; Mrs. Douglas, Chairman of Civics; Mrs. Trotter, Chairman of Music; Mrs. Neal Anderson, Chairman of Juniors; Mrs. H. C. Fanno, Recording Secretary; Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Corresponding Secretary, and Mrs. Cockrill, Treasurer.

CELLAR DAMAGED.

Sparks dropping from a fireplace last Sunday set fire to the cellar in the home of W. Hayden McFadden, 108 South Narberth avenue. The alarm was sounded at 8:15 A. M. and the company responded at once, finding that the fire had spread through some stored awnings to joists communicating with the gas meter.

The fire was under control in a short time, although due to the heavy smoke and gas fumes, the firemen had great difficulty in approaching the blaze. The damage, estimated at $700, is covered by insurance.

Juniors to Meet

The third season of the Junior Section of the Woman's Community Club is slowly getting under way, the second meeting being called for Thursday, October 18th, at 8 o'clock. Miss Marion Trotter will entertain the members at her home, 209 Woodside avenue.

It is hoped that the enthusiastic crowd which appeared at the first meeting will turn out for this one. A special program, featuring outside talent, is being prepared by the Program Committee. The committee having charge of refreshments has failed to report, but if the usual standard of hospitality is maintained, no one need fear the pangs of hunger on the homeward journey.

Come and bring a new member!

LESTER WILLIS NICKERSON.

After a vain struggle against a lingering illness, during which medical experts of Philadelphia, Boston and Brockton had endeavored to bring relief, Lester W. Nickerson, of 111 Elmwood avenue, passed away Thursday of last week in Brockton, Mass.

He had been in declining health since an illness with influenza, and for the past two years his sickness had baffled medical authorities. He remained brave and cheerful as he kept up the struggle for health during that time. Last spring he went with his family to his summer home at Cotuit, Mass., where he remained until September, when he was taken to Brockton for treatment, being accompanied by his wife.

Mr. Nickerson, who was a descendant of an old Cape Cod family, received his early education in the schools of Brockton and later graduated from Brown University. He had been a resident of Narberth for thirteen years. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him, especially by those who knew him intimately, and saw reflected in his happy home relations the fine qualities he possessed. All the characteristics of a kind, patient father and husband, a loyal friend and a good Christian, a heritage of which his sons may well be proud.

He was a member of the Narberth Presbyterian Church and as organist, devoted much of his time to the music of that church.

Mr. Nickerson leaves surviving him his wife, Abbie Whiting Nickerson, two sons, Stanton and Philip; his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Willis T. Nickerson, and a brother, Roland Nickerson, of Cotuit, Mass.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY DINNER.

On Monday of this week Mr. and Mrs. D. Warren Wright gave a dinner party in honor of their wedding anniversary. The rooms were prettily decorated with baskets of garden flowers, and the groups of small tables, with yellow candle shades, gave a cosy, informal touch that was much enjoyed by all the guests.

Mrs. Wright's mother and sister, Mrs. W. H. Shannon and Miss Helen Shannon, of Coatesville, Pa., assisted in entertaining. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rice, of New Haven, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gault, of Logan; Mr. C. E. Reilly, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Brownell, Mr. and Mrs. James Fair, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wentz, Mr. and Mrs. George Michener, Mr. and Mrs. James Laughlin and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris.

HOME BAKE.

The American Legion Auxiliary, Narberth Unit, will have on sale today, Saturday, October 13th, that wholesome and delicious assortment of home baked goods previously mentioned in these columns.

Those who would add a delectable and dainty home baked morsel to their Sunday table should jot this on their shopping list, "Cook Bros." store, Haverford avenue.

Goods on display after 10 A. M.
MRS. J. T. HOWENSTEIN,
Chairman.

CAKE SALE.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will have a sale of home-made cakes, pies, etc., on Saturday, October 20th (one week from today). The place and hour have not been set, but you may assume that it will be convenient for your marketing. Watch for posters which will tell you all about it.

The FIRESIDE

The service Sunday evening at the Baptist Church will be quite different from the usual. Thirteen young women in "Oriental" robes, directed by Mrs. Demmy, will illustrate the sermon, which will be based on Matt. 25: 1-13. This will be a real message presented in a pleasing and effective way.

Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, of Chestnut avenue, left last week for Detroit, Mich., where she will visit friends.

Miss Gertrude M. Price, of Woodside avenue, has gone to Tulsa, Oklahoma, for an extended visit.

The League of Women Voters held their annual election of officers at the home of Mrs. C. P. Fowler, on Elmwood avenue. Those now holding office are: Mrs. C. P. Fowler, who was re-elected Chairman; Mrs. Anna McKay, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. J. W. Darville, Secretary, and Mrs. M. C. Griswold, Treasurer. The next meeting will be held a week previous to the regular time on account of the elections.

Narberth Welfare Committee Forms

Many Local Women in Annual Drive

Mrs. Franklin D'Olier, Captain of the Narberth-Wynnewood teams of the Welfare Federation, has completed her organization in this district. Between October 24 and November 5, these teams will work to push the district over its quota to help maintain the 13 charitable institutions in the Federation.

Those assisting Mrs. D'Olier on the Narberth team are Miss Ida Buckman, Mrs. Fred E. Derby, Mrs. Leroy C. Douglas, Mrs. W. H. Donaldson, Mrs. James W. Darville, Mrs. C. P. Fowler, Mrs. E. C. Griswold, Miss Edith Gara, Mrs. Romaine Hoffman, Mrs. LeRoy A. King, Mrs. George A. Mahl, Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites, Mrs. Hugh Speed, Miss Maizie Simpson, Mrs. E. C. Town, Mrs. A. W. Ward, Mrs. F. Dinwiddie Walker.

Since the last campaign of the Federation, which was led along the Main Line by Alfred M. Collins, who also is in charge this year, the Main Line Citizens' Association has been accepted in membership. In addition, more than eighty per cent. of the organizations in the Federation operate in this district.

Judge J. Willis Martin, President of the Federation, this week made known the work of the 130 organizations since the last campaign. This work, he said, is the largest philanthropic endeavor in the country conducted by the largest charitable organization.

"More than 73,000 individuals," said Judge Martin, "were benefited by the 130 charitable organizations in the Welfare Federation. The 29 hospitals treated 338,319 patients, and of this number 258,692 were free, or part free. The dispensaries alone treated 210,864 persons, giving them 675,402 treatments and 228,018 prescriptions." Judge Martin called attention to the fact that once every five minutes of the year, day and night, an injured person is carried to one of the Federation hospitals—102,673. More than 35,000 operations were performed during the year, and 14,292 babies were born in Federation institutions or attended by visiting nurses. Nurses made 307,308 visits of mercy to the homes of the poor during the year.

More than 4,500 orphans, deserted and dependent children were fed, clothed and housed. The hospitals cared for 51,777 children, and including the welfare and community work, 198,900 children were touched by the 130 agencies.

The aged, homeless, blind and destitute, numbering 18,730, were provided for. These were given 276,763 lodgings and 706,940 meals. In family relief work more than 73,000 persons were assisted, while in the settlements, community centers and character-building agencies 245,549 persons were helped.

FIRE AT CYNWYD.

The Narberth Fire Company was called out in a second alarm sounded by the Union Fire Company of Bala-Cynwyd last Sunday to help in the battle against a $10,000 blaze at Highland and Birch avenues. The fire, at the home of Mr. George J. Kane, was the first real test of the new apparatus recently purchased by our neighbors of the twin cities.

Winds sent sparks flying in the neighborhood and several times firemen turned streams of water on the roof of other houses to prevent them from being ignited.

The fire started in the roof, being caused by sparks sent up the chimney by the stirring of some logs in the fireplace. The roof of the Kane home and much of the second story were destroyed. The first story escaped the flames but was damaged considerably by water. The building was insured.

Damages were cut down to a minimum due to the prompt action of the volunteer firemen in removing articles of furniture from the blazing home. Boy Scouts of Bala-Cynwyd aided greatly in this work. Within fifteen minutes after the fire engines had arrived all the furniture, but a piano, had been removed. A number of valuable furs stored on the top floor were destroyed, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Kane were seated before their fireplace when a passing motorist rushed in with the information that the roof of their home was ablaze. The fire began at 11 A. M.

Plans Polished for Dinner to Acclaim Narberth's Victory

Gala Baseball Affair Next Tuesday Evening

Wisdom that reflection always brings makes plain that honors must be carefully borne, but nevertheless there comes a time in the life of men and boroughs when some great joy or distinction comes unto them, and the ecstasy which throbs on such occasions must needs find expression in scintillating and supreme merriment under roistering and rollicking auspices.

All of which being brought down to Fire House patois means that the Narberth baseball team has won the 1923 Pennant of the Main Line League, and that to properly observe the splendid achievement a call has been broadcast throughout our sturdy village for all hands to gather round the festive board next Tuesday evening, 6:30 o'clock, at the General Wayne Inn, and there pay tribute, not only to Bill Crowell and the young gentlemen whom he has directed to such successful results, but also to the sterling things which make the game of baseball the great national pastime and a distinct, wholesome and profitable feature of community life in America. And, as Bill Crowell says, when you do play, play fair, play square, play to win, play to put that herald of leadership on the staff of your own home town. That's where it is, Bill; that's where it is, and long may it wave.

Every detail of the Tuesday evening program has been completed with the super-finish characteristic of Nash administration. Food the like of which you never got at home will be served in bounteous quantities, table d'hôte, à la carte and ad nauseum, all three at one time, and some spectacular gastronomic feats will unquestionably go into the archives of the riotous evening. The forensic array will undoubtedly be one of eminence and elegance. A young man of very promising talents who lives in a "fitter way" on Haverford avenue, and to whom distinctions are coming at a rate which is galloping his hair away, will be on hand and he will release a brand-new oration which is bound to make that hallowed and historic hostelry rock and roll. Get set for this chap, because he sure is a comer. His real name is said to be Fights, and to whom distinctions are coming at a rate which is galloping his hair away, will be on hand and he will release a brand-new oration which is bound to make that hallowed and historic hostelry rock and roll. And last, but by no means least—oh, by no means least—the occasion will mark the advent of William S. Howard, our Titian-haired apothecary, as a public speaker. For years and years this talented gentleman has had burning in his bosom breast a message of major import to the Narberth public, and he has selected this great gala evening as the time when he shall let his soul pour forth and in ringing terms denounce the tyranny of our local Borough Government, which has now reached the culminating point by its recent ukase prohibiting the parking of perambulators on sidewalks adjacent to drug stores. Even if there were no other reason for our citizens to turn out en masse, certainly this erudite eruption of our pulchritudinous pharmacist would afford it. His carefully prepared outbreak will be delivered impromptu at 10:10 P. M. sharp.

The mass singing will be under the direction of our own Professor Nice, who has secured a special dispensation to wear his elegant evening clothes, but it is only fair to say that this extraordinary privilege may be cancelled at any time, even during the course of the dinner.

Forty-three reservations are still available, at $2.50 each, and those men who have not as yet signed up are requested to act quickly. Apply to Davis or Howard's on the Blakely. A most cordial invitation to attend is extended to all the newcomers in Narberth. Come along, everybody.

LARGER QUARTERS.

We're getting ahead. With this issue we enter our tenth volume. Nine years since that first issue stepped nervously forth on October 15th, 1914. In that time "Our Town" has changed somewhat in appearance, somewhat in size, but has never deviated an inch from its original purpose—to furnish the news of Narberth to its citizens, and to work for any project of civic advancement.

With this number also we resume our larger winter size. It will give us ample room for the demands of local activities for the time at least. Unfortunately, the change was made on a "lean" week in the matter of news, so we must beg the indulgence of our readers if we appear to be imitating other suburban papers by publishing too much "filler."

Which comes back to the idea of the original plan of "Our Town"—co-operation. This tenth volume of "Our Town" must be its greatest. May we have the help of our readers in making it so?

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

October 7 to 13 in Narberth is Fire Prevention Week. Something occurred in Narberth last week which will serve to illustrate just what the week is being advertised for. We refer to the fire which started in a cellar from sparks dropped from an open fire-place. In these brisk fall days, when an open fire is so delightful, when every home has one or two burning, all should be particularly careful. Burning scraps of paper have a fiendish habit of flying up the chimney to land on the shingle roof and set it afire. It is interesting to strike a partly burned log and watch the shower of sparks thrown. It may be equally interesting to have one of the sparks light on a curtain or on something else flimsy and inflammable, but it is not very pleasant.

It is dangerous to leave an open fire alone, for sparks and embers are likely to set the carpet or woodwork afire. A strong, high fire screen is practically necessary, and is much less expensive than repairing the damage wrought by fire.

There are many other fire hazards. Matches in the hands of children are careless smokers, oil lamps and candle-reekless burning of leaves and rubbish leaving pyralis, rubber and celluloid toilet articles near flames, and other thoughtless acts are the reasons for the growing need of new fire apparatus in Narberth.

HOUSES OR HOMES.

Observers frequently note that in the most complete and well kept home there is a lack of the human element. They remind one of the suites in exhibitions, demonstrations of correct house furnishings. There are highly polished floors that seem as if made for dancing yet which never feel the touch of rhythmic feet. There are proper bookshelves filled with the world's wisdom in the most luxurious bindings. There are pillows of lovely color that look as if they never felt a head. The bedrooms look as if no intruding foot had ever entered, the beds apparently had entertained no sleepers.

The true homemaker realizes that her task is a constant compromise. Home is not a place to demonstrate neatness solely, or handsome furnishings. It is primarily a place to work out life's experiments.

The young folks must have places where they can be trying out things, making blunders and failures often. "Yes, Betty, you can use the sewing machine," said a mother the other day. "She may get it out of order," she remarked, "but it can be repaired."

Much of Theodore Roosevelt's virility may have been due to the leniency of a mother who allowed him to keep snakes in his washbowl.

The retired nook where confidence can be exchanged and where father and mother do not have to be included in conversation means much to young folks. Keble has well expressed it in the lines:

Sweet is the smile of home, the mutual look

Where hearts are of each other sure:

Sweet all the joys that crowd the household nook,

The haunt of all affections pure.

GAME LAW CHANGES.

Hunters' Licenses: Under the new game code hunters' licenses are required before hunting for birds or animals of any kind, except by persons residing upon and cultivating lands, who have the same privileges as heretofore. County Treasurers are now issuing the 1923 hunters' licenses and tags in large numbers. A number of counties have issued more licenses than at this same date a year ago. This means that either more licenses will be issued this year or else the sportsmen of the State are securing their licenses early, thus avoiding the rush and being sure that their licenses are in their possession before they want to use them. The new "robin egg blue" tags are a big improvement over the tag used in 1922.

Applicants for licenses must now give their "occupation" instead of "occupation" as heretofore required. Boys under 16 years do not need licenses to trap for fur-bearing animals or vermin.

Open Seasons and Bag Limits: The open seasons and bag limits for game of all kinds in Pennsylvania, as governed by both the State and Federal laws, are given in detail on the back of every hunter's license, with additional information on various features of the new law.

Hours of Sunrise and Sunset: Under the old law shooting or hunting between sunset and sunrise, except for raccoons, was specifically prohibited. The Legislature saw fit to extend the hours of shooting in the new game code, and under the new law it is legal to hunt for or kill wild turkeys only between sunrise and sunset, and all other kinds of game may be hunted for and killed from one-half hour before sunrise until one-half hour after sunset. Raccoons may be hunted at any time during the night-time. A list giving the official hour of sunrise and sunset, Eastern Standard time, for the months of October, November and December are given in a table attached. It is hoped that the newspapers throughout the State will publish this list complete and that the sportsmen will each cut out the table and keep it with their hunters' licenses for their information and guidance.

The penalty for hunting during the night-time is now $25 for each offense instead of from $10 up to $200 as fixed by the old law.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

Review of Tennis Club Activities.

The Tennis Club activities are about over for the summer, and in looking back it has been in every way the most successful season in the history of the Club. Warm weather prevailed early in the spring, thereby affording the Grounds Committee an opportunity to get the courts in good condition early. The players responded promptly, and it has been no uncommon sight to see the courts filled each week night and on afternoons throughout the summer.

Several of the members followed the practice of playing each morning before going to business. The ladies, too, came out more often than in past seasons, and it was a thoughtful move on the part of the committee when they designated one of the courts exclusively to the use of lady members. The matter of handling the large number of players on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays was carried out very successfully, as each and every one who desired to play was afforded the opportunity. The Club team that participated in the Class "A" division of the Middle States League this past summer did not show up so well during the early part of the season, partly due to the fact that many of the members had not played together before, causing lack of team work, but after they became seasoned they made a very creditable showing.

Then, during the early part of May several of the ladies conceived the idea of serving Saturday night dinners at the club house. The work entailed in successfully preparing food for and serving an average of seventy people each Saturday was no small job, but like everything else the ladies tackled, it went through to a satisfactory conclusion. It is estimated the women served eleven hundred and fifty meals. No wonder the Club is popular and growing with that spirit in evidence.

Then, after the Club Tournament, came preparations for the great Country Fair. There seems to be no need to elaborate on that occasion, as the results show it to be the biggest and best of the annuals, and its success was greatly due to the untiring efforts of John Wine and Pres. Billy Evans. Their time and their ears and their energy were devoted entirely to the Fair many days prior to its opening date. Mention here must be made to the great assistance given by Mr. Horace Smalley and Alex Shand, Jr., in erecting the booths, and the fine club spirit exercised by Bill Davies in getting an individual lighting plant hauled out from the City, and in addition the vast amount of work in the installation of the myriads of electric lights.

A word here will be opportune relative to the keen interest in the Club by its President, W. D. R. Evans. "Bill," as he is known to all, thinks more of the Narberth Tennis Club than most people do of a home. When the members elected him as President almost two years ago, they builded better than they knew at that time. He is heart and soul in his duties, always thinking and planning for the members' pleasure and comfort. Bill is here, there and everywhere when needed, and the Club members are grateful to him, and they say he must hold his same position for another year at least. The Ladies' Auxiliary are already planning an active fall and winter season, and in addition soon will be those happy get-together Club dances, the first of which is on Halloween.

GAS IN THE INDUSTRIES

Due to the use of gas in hundreds of factory operations, untold benefit is being enjoyed by workman and manufacturer alike. Working conditions have been immeasurably improved by clearing the atmosphere of smoke and soot by the use of this clean, sanitary fuel. On the other hand, the manufacturer is able to make better products and often at a considerable saving in time and money. Industrial advancement in this country owes much to the development of gas industrial processes.

NEW BOOKS FOR CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT OF THE LIBRARY.

Mrs. Carl Metzger has made a gift to the Library of about fifty books, among which are twenty for the Children's Department. They are:

"Betty, a Schoolgirl," "House of Surprises," "Polly," "A World of Girls," Meade, "Giovanni and the Other," Frances Hodgson Burnett, "Christmas Stories," Asa Dickenson, "Mary Dale's Great Secret," Mary Penrose, "Budd Boyd's Triumph," Wm. P. Chipman, "Our Bessie," "Esther," "Aunt Diana," Carey, "Hans Brinker," M. Mapes Dodge, "Outdoor Girls in a Winter Camp," Laura Lee Hope, "Hitherto," Mrs. Whitney, "Child's Story of the Bible," "Last Words," Juliana Ewing, "Blister Jones," Foote, "Alden, the Lony Express Rider," Ellis.

The Library is pleased to announce the return of Mrs. Weigand from her European trip. Her little patrons as well as the staff will undoubtedly give her a very warm welcome when she is free to resume her Library connections. She brought with her a number of prints of pictures by old masters which will be exhibited on the bulletin board in the children's corner.

Lower Merion H. S.

This week "Our Town" begins a column on the "doings" of the students at Lower Merion High School. A large number of Narberth boys and girls attend this institution, and it is felt that such a column will be of much interest not only to them and their parents and friends, but also to the pupils in the Narberth Borough public schools who, upon their graduation from the elementary grades, will attend Lower Merion.

Local students are invited to send in accounts of dances or parties or any school gatherings which may be held at their homes, but information of which may not be secured through the regular school channels.

Football Team's Strong Showing

The unusually strong football team which Lower Merion has developed this year has not only aroused the interest of immediately surrounding communities, but has focused the attention of the schools of the entire Philadelphia section upon L. M. The township team has been showing its heels to all comers to date and thus far has run up a total score of 133 points to its opponents' zero points.

Only three contests have been played, but two of the games were won by overwhelming scores. Lower Merion started off in great style, beating Upper Darby, 52-0, on September 21, but little was thought of this as the game was an opening one. The following week, however, Lower Merion surprised the entire scholastic world by beating the strong Germantown team, a contender for the Philadelphia championship last year, by a 12-0 count.

Last week the eleven continued the good work and lifted the scalp of Berwyn High to the tune of 69-0. This Friday Cheltenham High will be played on the Lower Merion Field at Ardmore on the Montgomery Pike, and the rabid Lower Merionites are predicting that Merion's string of victims will be increased by one, and with a score that will be in keeping with the previous ones.

A large delegation always represents Narberth at the Lower Merion games. "It is but fitting and proper that this should be thus," for not only are there a large number of local students at the school, but Narberth is represented on the eleven. One of the four cheer-leaders is also from this community.

Seven Games Remain

Lower Merion has seven games remaining on its schedule. Two of these are away.

Two of the games are played on Fri-

Random Notes

The enrollment at Lower Merion is estimated to be 500 students. This does not include the Freshmen who attend the Junior High School with the eighth grades.

The enrollment exceeds that of previous years, and in spite of the absence of the Freshmen Class, the school is crowded.

The first of the weekly plays which are given by the various rooms of the school at the Thursday morning assemblies was given this week. The rooms take turns giving plays, one being presented each week.

Plays are also given Wednesday morning, but these are in rehearsal for the Thursday morning assembly, and only the students of the room which is to give the act are privileged to be present.

Two of the remaining three assemblies are devoted to morning exercises. And on Monday morning there is singing and a meeting of the student council.

The Sophomores organized their dramatic club this week. One play a year is given by each of the three classes.

A request for football songs was broadcasted among the students during the week. Would-be-composers must have their efforts in by the end of another week.

The Lower Merion Chapter of the Alpha Phi Fraternity is now busy disposing of tickets for the dance which the fraternity at large is giving at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel on the evening of October 26. Inducements for the purchase of tickets are that there will be three orchestras and an Atlantic City bathing girl revue.

A cross country team, the first in the history of the school, is being organized at Lower Merion this year. A call for candidates has been sent out and Spencer Owen, of Cynwyd, the manager, is now arranging a schedule with schools of the Philadelphia district.

The Senior Class elected its first officers for the year last week. A cynwyd resident, Folwell Scull, the captain of the football team, was made president. The other officers are: Vice President, Louise Williams; Treasurer, Walter Durham, and Secretary, Thomas Manning.

An invitation dance will be given by the Senior class in the gym the evening of November 8. Music will be by Mike Fiach's Orchestra, which is much in demand at scholastic affairs.

The Committee in charge of arrangements for the dance consists of Gene Nugent, chairman; Walter Durham, Charles Peterson and Folwell Scull.

A soccer team has been organized in the school for the first time this year. Arthur Swallow is captain and Kenneth Yocum is manager. The first game was played with a team from Haverford School this week.

A girls' hockey team is now being formed. Miss Pauline Frederick, girls' gym teacher, is coach.

MELODY CLUB.

Monday evening, October 15th, opens the season for the Ardmore Melody Club. At that time an unusually attractive program will be presented by talent in the club and also by guest artists. The concert, which will include a piano solo by Edith Mann, a soprano solo by Mrs. George Maertz, a bass solo by A. Croesley, a harp solo by Helen Green, a string trio including William Nash, H. Roy Wolf and Harold Schumann, and an instrumental quartet in which Wesley Ohl, flutist, will augment the trio, will be one of the few concerts during the season open to the public. It will be held in the Woman's Community Club building in Ardmore, at 8 o'clock.

The Melody Club, starting from a very modest beginning a few years ago, has grown into a musical organization of wide influence along the Main Line. Its membership is rapidly growing and now includes many prominent musicians not only in Ardmore, but from all points nearby. It has thus been able to arrange a series of concerts for the present season more interesting than ever before attempted by this organization. Some will feature club talent and others professional artists of national reputation.

Under the direction of is newly elected President, Mrs. Nelson D. Warwick, three phases of musical interest will be developed in the club this year, solo work, string ensemble and chorus. All three divisions of the club are in a strong position to do excellent work during the present season, and each will be featured in the programs given every month by the club.

Please renew subscription promptly.
